

NOT QUITE WHAT THEY MEANT

THESE three youngsters obviously thought that their pedal car would fit in best alongside the Messerschmitt Sports Cabriolets at last weekend's National Micro-Car Rally at Dorsington Manor.

Bubble cars from all over Europe were there for the eighth National Micro-Car Rally.

A wide variety was on show including Isettas, Heinkels and Messerschmitts and British Berkeleys and Bonds. All of them had engines of not more than 700 cc, the maximum size permitted for a Micro-Car.

The rally included a treasure hunt to the Broadway Tower Country Park, films, a sprint event and a concours d'élégance.
